

Hello from the Butterfly room.

Hope all of you enjoyed Christmas and your extended time off. 2017 came in with a bang!

We have finally settled back into a routine.

Here is a glimpse of the work each child is doing.

Charlie has been working on Golden Bead addition. She has also been working on the dressing frames and is tracing letters.

Lucas had a new lesson on the Binomial cube. He has also been using the melting beads, dressing frames, and locks and keys.

Faith continues working on addition using the golden bead material. She practices reading daily with the vowel cards as well as the object box.

Ally has started addition with the golden bead material. She is also working on word building with the moveable alphabet.

Hudson has started golden bead addition. He continues word building with the moveable alphabet.

Jasper had a new lesson on the binomial cube and enjoys sorting the living & non-living cards.

JD enjoys sorting the living & non-living cards. He likes to build with the stairs and tower. Recently he had a lesson on scrubbing the floor

Norah had a new lesson on subtraction with the golden beads. She enjoys reading verbs and acting out verbs. She also had a lesson on adjectives matching nouns and adjectives.

Daniel had a lesson on addition using the stamp game. He practices reading daily with the object box and vowel cards.

Abby's continues working on the spindle boxes. She had a new lesson on the binomial cube.

Kyla had a new lesson on "How many ways" using the strip board. She uses the board to create as many combinations she can to make a number such as 10. She has also done biome work.

Sidney reads often with the object box. She has been reading and acting out verbs. She also likes to arrange flowers and work with the different dressing frames

Max had a new lesson on the locks and keys, and binomial cube. He has been working with the dressing frames.

Ella had a lesson on subtraction with the golden beads. She has also begun multiplication using the bead bars.

Mabel continues working on golden bead addition as well as moveable alphabet. Mabel is also beginning to read using the vowel cards.

Brandon continues to work on word building with the moveable alphabet. He reads daily with the vowel cards.

Riley had a new lesson on multiplication using the bead bars. She is also working on italic. She loves to read and has read 3 Magic Tree-house books in one week.

Caleb had a new lesson on multiplication with the bead bars. He has also learned to tie.

Oliver has been working on addition using the stamp game. He also reads the object boxes and is working on long vowels.

Thanks,
Nina and Ariana
